Denial Of Voting Rights To Prisoners: Delhi HC Issues Notice In PIL Filed By Law Students [Read Petition]

08 Mar 2019 03:07 pm

The Delhi High Court has issued notice in a Public Interest Litigation filed by three law students challenging the constitutionality of section 62(5) of Representation of People Act, 1951, which deprives prisoners their right to vote.

Praveen Kumar Chaudhary, Atul Kumar Dubey and Prerna Singh, Students of B.A LL.B. (H.) 4th Year, Galgotias University, Greater Noida, Uttar Pradesh, have approached the High Court contending that blanket ban on right to vote of prisoners is violation of the spirit and soul enshrined in the Constitution of India and also to the basic principle of Equality. They contend that the denial of voting rights will ostracize the prisoners from mainstream political decision making of world's largest democracy.

They also seek a direction from the Court to provide facilities and amenities to prisoners to cast their vote from jail premises itself.

The main challenge is against Section 62(5) of the Representation of People Act which reads: 'No person shall vote at any election if he is

TESTIMONIALS

School of Law has been a great learning experience. The school has helped us in blending both the co-curricular and extra curricular activities together. The best part has been the major focus on the internships which helped me to have a first hand experience of advocating. Also regular classes help us to have a focused leading of the laws.

Aditya Tripathi
BA+LLB (Hons.) 4th Year

School of Law, Galgotias University is to me the quality institution for the true legal aspirant. Faculties here not only have sound knowledge of the subject matter but also have vibrant teaching skills. They have always emphasized on development of researching skills, oral presentations, argumentative skills, court mannerisms and have been giving their best to prepare us in a manner that we become profound lawyers after the course completion. I am glad to have chosen SOL, Galgotias University for my education.

Janhvi
BBA+LLB (Hons.) 3rd Year

The excellence of faculties, strength of infrastructural facilities and the overall commitment of our department has placed our Law school at the forefront of Legal Education. My journey from the discussion in the classroom to practical knowledge in Moot Court Hall and Debating competitions has been amazing. I have been blessed with the best faculties who have nurtured our growth at every step of the way. I am delighted to be a part of School of Law, Galgotias University.
